

Hair TRANSPLANTATION

Professional Diploma

Objective:

After this two-day course, Plastic surgeons, and dermatologists will master the FUE hair transplantation method safely and effectively.

Methodology:

- Practical training workshops and academic experience.
- Live demonstrations.
- Interactive presentations.
- Discussion.

Introduction to Hair Transplantation:

- History and evolution of hair transplantation.
- Overview of hair anatomy and physiology.
- Hair Cycle.
- Hair Loss Classification and Diagnosis.
- Non operative treatments and methods.

Patient Assessment and Consultation:

- Evaluating hair loss patterns and severity.
- Identifying suitable candidates for hair transplantation.
- Managing patient expectations.

Hair Transplantation Methods:

- Follicular Unit Extraction (FUE).
- Follicular Unit Transfer (FUT).
- Direct Hair Implant (DHI).

Hair Transplantation Technique:

- Hairline Design Anesthesia.
- Donor area assessment and harvesting techniques.
- Graft preparation and preservation.
- Recipient Site Prep and Graft Placement.
- Graft insertion.

Postoperative Care and Complications:

- Postoperative instructions.
- Follow-up care.
- Managing common post-transplant complications.

The Leaders of Continuous Medical Education